Storytelling with Santa

For K1–2 students only.

Storytelling with Santa is a 5-day early literacy and hands-on crafting module designed for kindergarten learners (K1–K2). Each session follows a predictable, daily routine divided into five core components: targeted phonics drills, read aloud, writing and drawing, fine-motor craft activities to solidify the day's story theme.

inspirED Reader & Writer

Writing in a Winter Wonderland

For K2–3 students only.

This course provides an immersive winter-themed experience that sparks imagination and builds foundational narrative skills. Harnessing their phonics knowledge and inventive spelling, students engage in a creative blend of illustration and storytelling. Through exciting winter craft activities, children bring their very own winter wonderland tales to life.

Creative Writing

Creating X'mas Storybooks

Jingle all the way to publication! Unleash your child's inner author in this festive, project-based workshop where we believe every story is a gift. Designed for students in Grades 1 and 2, this course focuses on building foundational literacy skills and the courage to express their creative Christmas ideas in their own unique way.

inspirED Reader & Writer

Stories of the season:

Read, Write, and Discover Winter Traditions

Students will be guided through fundamental reading comprehension and informational writing skills while exploring winter traditions, global celebrations, and festive foods. They will practice essential non-fiction skills—including identifying main ideas, comparing cultures, using text features, and writing step-by-step instructions. By the end of the course, students edit, publish, and create their very own "Holiday Passport" to showcase their learning

Yule Love Writing

"Yule Love Writing" is a multi-genre creative and analytical writing unit centered around winter and holiday themes. Across three distinct sessions, students explore different forms of written expression—narrative story writing, persuasive essay writing, and poetry—while building core grammar, descriptive vocabulary, and structural planning skills.

inspirED Reader & Writer

The Arctic Explorer: National Geographic Winter Writing

Explore the icy world of arctic animals and put your non-fiction writing skills to the test! Join us as we study incredible winter animals like penguins, arctic foxes, narwhals, and polar bears! Students will step into the shoes of researchers to investigate how these creatures survive in polar habitats. Using their non-fiction writing skills, students will design and publish their very own mini field guide packed with cool facts, and non-fiction writing features to showcase their research.

Critical Thinking

Critical Thinking: Digital Literacy & Online Safety

In an increasingly digital world, understanding how to navigate and critically evaluate online content is essential. This course will provide students with a chance to develop their digital understanding. With hands-on activities, students will analyse information, understand how to safely use AI, and discern credible sources from misinformation. In the end, students will have a final media project and an understanding of how better to navigate the digital world.

G7 – 8 AGES 12 – 13

Academic Writing

This bite-sized workshop is designed to help parents understand the shift in academic expectations as students enter the middle grades. We'll demystify the core skills necessary for sophisticated, analytical writing, moving beyond simple reports toward purposeful interpretation.

The Twelve Days of Discourse: A Festive English Intensive

The Twelve Days of Discourse channels that festive energy into high-value academic skills essential for GCSE and IB DP success. Rather than fighting the holiday buzz, this intensive uses it as a springboard for critical thinking, persuasive writing, comparative analysis, and creative expression. Over five days, students move from analyzing the rhetoric of holiday advertising to rewriting classic seasonal tales, debating the commercialization of the season, deconstructing film scenes, and finally presenting a portfolio of their best work. Every activity is anchored in real academic skills—argumentation, textual analysis, transactional writing, and public speaking—wrapped in a seasonal theme that keeps engagement high.
